WATER/NON-PERISHABLE FOODS/CLOTHES:

SALVATION ARMY: The truckloads of goods and supplies donated to The Salvation Army in support of the historic floods to hit Southern Louisiana will be handed out to those in need starting at 12 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 18. Residents in need should come to Cortana Mall at 9401 Cortana Place in Baton Rouge at entrance five of the mall outside the old Gap store. The Salvation Army distribution will last from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday. On Friday, the distribution center will again hand out goods from 9 a.m. - 12 p.m. and then 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. At this location, residents will receive food boxes, water, clean up kits, toiletries, diapers, and pet supplies. Only one person from a household may pick up supplies, and you may not pick up for more than one household. You must show proof that you live in the affected area. This can be demonstrated by showing a driver’s license or power/water bill. The Salvation Army continues to accept donated good at this location as well.

RIVER OAKS BAPTIST CHURCH: 14949 Old Hammond Hwy., has set up a distribution center. The Fellowship Hall had been converted to a distribution center where community members can pick up free items, which on Wednesday, Aug. 17 will include: Water, non-perishable food, clothes, diapers for children and adults, personal hygiene products, paper products, like paper towels and bathroom tissue, pet food and bowls.

NEW HOME MINISTRIES COMMUNITY OUTREACH: Free supplies will be available to flood victims, including non-perishable food items, clothing, and school supplies. Also included will be bag lunches, singing, preaching, and fun for the kids. All are welcome on Saturday, Aug. 20, at 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Supplies will be available at the New Home Family Worship Center, 3000 Tecumseh St., Baton Rouge.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER: Family Worship Center (FWC) has a flood relief donation center now open on the campus of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries, located at 8919 World Ministry Avenue in the Phillip J. Hogan Building (located directly behind the administration building, across from the shipping department). Donations of non-perishable foods, bottled water, clothing, infant care products, packaged toiletries, cleaning supplies, pet supplies, and bedding can be dropped off Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and on Sundays from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. Donated supplies will be ready for pickup by those in need on Thursday, Aug. 18, at 8 a.m.

EAST FELICIANA EMERGENCY OPERATIONS CENTER: Distribution sites have been implemented to meet the needs of those who have been affected due to flooding and are in need of meals and water. The sites will be at 9414 Plank Road (The Early Learning Center) and 12305 Jackson St/Clinton La (Clinton Maintenance Office). Please be aware that the site located at 12305 Jackson Street will be for town of Clinton residents only. The site located at 9414 Plank Road will be for any resident of East Feliciana Parish. Water will be distributed at both locations from 12 p.m. - 2 p.m. and from 4 p.m. - 6 p.m. The American Red Cross will also be providing hot meals at those locations beginning at 12 p.m. Anyone who has any questions in reference to this can contact the Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness at (225) 683-1014.

THE EDGE CHURCH: The Edge Church, in partnership with the National Association of Christian Churches/NACC Disaster relief, Second Harvest Food Bank - feeding Louisiana, and Miracle Place Church in Baker, LA will be distributing food and cleaning supplies to flood victims on Friday, Aug. 19 at the following locations:
- The Edge Church, 13353 Hwy. 44, Gonzales, Distribution: 10 a.m.
- Miracle Place Church, 2080 Main St., Baker, Distribution: 12 p.m.

HEALING PLACE CHURCH: 600 Block of Florida Blvd; The old Affordable Furniture building has been turned into a help center; volunteers canned food, bottled water, cleaning supplies, hygiene products, baby food and diapers.

TYSON FOODS’ MEALS THAT MATTER: The team will begin distributing meals at 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 20, through dinner all weekend. The Cortana Mall (9401 Cortana Place, Baton Rouge, LA 70815) will serve as the feeding center throughout the weekend; however, the location may shift to best serve the ongoing needs of the community.
DISTRIBUTION OF MREs AND WATER: Livingston Parish, with the aid of the Louisiana Army and Air National Guard and the American Red Cross, have opened up sites to assist in the distribution of MREs and water. These distribution points can be found at the following locations:

MEDICAL NEEDS SHELTER:
• A Medical Special Needs Shelter is open at the LSU Fieldhouse. The Medical Special Needs Shelter does not provide emergency services, but is instead a shelter for those who have chronic medical conditions and particular special needs that cannot be accommodated in a general-population shelter. The Medical Special Needs Shelter will not be available to the general public, but only to those with special medical needs.
  The LSU Pete Maravich Assembly Center is not open at this time and is not serving as a shelter.
• An evacuation shelter for people with special medical conditions only is now open on the LSU campus in Baton Rouge. This is a shelter of last resort for people who currently receive in-home care and is not for the general public. At 10 p.m. Sunday, the medical special needs shelter opened in the Field House on the LSU campus in Baton Rouge.
  This shelter is designed for individuals who are homebound, chronically ill or who have disabilities and are in need of medical or nursing care, and have no other place to receive care. Those seeking shelter will be screened by nurses to determine the level of care needed. Only people who meet admission criteria can be sheltered.
  To access the shelter, a patient or caregiver must first call this triage line phone number: (225) 578-6383. For general information about the shelter, call (225) 578-3928.
• Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center is supporting a community disaster response as the result of extreme flooding. LSU Health Baton Rouge and Our Lady of the Lake Physician Group are offering urgent care, pharmacy, and primary care services.
• Our Lady of the Lake Physician Group is operating a temporary walk-in clinic with adult and pediatric services. The clinic is in a mobile health unit parked at the Essen entrance to Mary Bird Perkins – Our Lady of the Lake Cancer Center. No appointments are necessary.
• LSU Health Baton Rouge Urgent Care is operating 24/7. The Mid City Pharmacy is also open.
• The North Clinic is located at 5439 Airline Highway and can be reached at (225) 358-2280.
• The Mid City Pharmacy is located at 1401 N. Foster Drive and can be reached at (225) 987-9000.
